To the PEOPLE of GREAT-BRITAIN.

Salus Populi ſuprema Lex. LOCKE.

THE Public Good is the end of all government, and the ſupreme law in all nations and ſocieties of mankind. This is the law of nature, and of God; therefore never can be repealed nor made void by any human authority; and every one who acts contrary to it is a traitor, a rebel againſt Heaven, and an enemy to his fellow-men. Traitors and rebels of this ſort, are numerous in every country, alwzys ready to uſurp the rights of mankind, and tyrannize over them; and the utmoſt vigilance of the wiſe and good, is hardly ſufficient to guard againſt the inroads of theſe public enemies. This all ages have experienced, and this we experience in our own land at the preſent day.

True liberty, which all the people have a right to, is to be governed by laws made by themſelves, or ſuch as they have conſented to; tyranny and ſlavery is to be ruled by laws which they did not make nor conſent to. Let this fundamental maxim of liberty, founded in reaſon and nature, be applied to the preſent diſpute between Great-Britain and the Colonies, and it will appear as clear as the ſun, that no laws made by the Britiſh Parliament can bind the Coloniſts, unleſs they approve of them. This doctrine, which no man of common ſenſe will deny, demonſtrates that the acts of the Britiſh parliament are not laws in America; are no more binding upon the people here than the laws of Rome; and to ſay the contrary, is to ſay that we are ſlaves. For the eſſence of liberty is to be ſubject only to laws made by ourſelves; and being ſubject to laws made by any other people, is the eſſence of ſlavery. This great and fundamental doctrine of liberty has been maiptained by the brighteſt ſages of the law, and moſt illuſtrious ſtateſmen that ever lighted up the world and bleſſed mankind; particularly by that celebrated Patriot Mr. LOCKE, of immortal and bleſſed memory; whoſe admirable treatiſe of civil government, which contains the principles of true policy, ought to be read by every man who regards his liberty, or the welfare of his country. Agreeable to the ſentiments of this great man, ſubjecting the Americans to be taxed and controuled by the Britiſh parliament, is tyranny, and reduces them to ſlaves; and her uſing force, ſending fleets and armies here to enforce her laws, is putting herſelf into a ſtate of war with them; thereby ſhe diſſolves the bonds of union, and leaves them in a ſtate of nature---This is true Lockean doctrine, and it is truth itſelf.---All the arguments made uſe of to maintain the rights of parliament to tax the Colonies, will vaniſh in a moment, when we conſider that the parliament receives all its power from the common people; for who will be ſo abſurd as to ſuppoſe, that the freeholders in Britain have a right to make laws for the freeholders in America? The ſubjects in the two countries are upon a perfect level, with equal rights, and in every reſpect equally free. If it was otherwiſe, one would be maſters, and the other ſlaves; and it is the height of abſurdity and nonſenſe, to talk of the Britiſh parliament as being "the ſupreme legiſlature," having a right to "bind the Colonies, and exerciſe legiſlative authority over them." She never had any ſuch power or right, nor never can have: It is contrary to the law of nature, the principles of reaſon and common ſenſe. Our ſubjection to the parliament of Britain, cannot conſiſt with the leaſt ſhadow of liberty; and if we are bound by her laws, we are to all intents and purpoſes abſolute ſlaves to the people of Great-Britain.

Come then fellow-ſubjects, and fellow-chriſtians, let us reaſon together. God and nature has made us free, and placed us on a level; don't let us impiouſly uſurp the gifts of our common parent, and violate the laws of Heaven, by deſtroying that liberty which is the baſis of all human happineſs. No nation in the univerſe, that we have any knowledge of, has ſuch a glorious proſpect as the Engliſh; our only danger is a diſunion, if this takes place, Britain muſt fall; but America will be independent; her ſituation, vaſt extent of territory, and natural advantages for independency, wealth and power, aſſure her freedom. Let none be deluded with this abſurd miniſterial doctrine, "that a ſupreme power over the whole nation muſt be in the Britiſh parliament, and the nation cannot be governed without it;" this is the product of weak or wicked heads, and tends to the diſunion and deſtruction of the common wealth. The true plan of government which reaſon and the experience of nations points out for the Britiſh empire, is, to let the ſeveral parliaments in Britain and America be (as they naturally are) free and independent of each other, as the parliaments are in Holland. And as the King is the centre of union, and one third of the whole legiſlature, the various parts of the great body politic will be united in him; he will be the ſpring and ſoul of the union, to guide and regulate the grand political machine.---Common intereſt (the great and only bond of ſociety) will cement the various members, invigorate the whole body, and perpetuate the union.-----This will hold every joint and member in its proper place, and while all find themſelves free, a noble ambition will ſtimulate every one to contribute to the happineſs and glory of the whole empire, ---peace and harmony will reign through her vaſt dominions; while diſcord, jealouſy, and envy, the bane of nations, will be heard no more. Thus Britain may be free and happy, rich and glorious, to the lateſt poſterity of time! And ſo vaſt are the treaſures of national wealth and power which ſhe may receive from this great continent, imagination can hardly ſet bounds to her future ſplendor! George may be the greateſt monarch, and his dominions the moſt auguſt empire, ever formed by the ſons of men.

The plan of government here exhibited, is the only path of ſafety for the nation; if ſhe departs from it, a diſunion between Britain and America, and a diſſolution of the empire will be the inevitable conſequence. Both theſe are as plain as the high road at noon day: Therefore it is to be hoped the Britiſh miniſtry and parliament, will no more inſult human underſtanding with vain pretenſions of ſuperiority over the Americans. Theſe colonies never made any agreement with, nor acknowledged any dependence upon the parliament of Great-Britain--nor never will.--- Their contract was with the King, and none elſe. Him they acknowledge as their lawful ſovereign, and are willing to bear a juſt proportion of the charge in ſupporting his dignity and that of the nation; but of this proportion, and how to collect it, they will be the judge.---Without this privilege they would be ſlaves, deſtitute of every ray of freedom; and ſlaves they will not be.

Let all, who would tax the Americans, conſider and weigh well the following conſiderations. The number of people in Britiſh America, according to their increaſe in years paſt, will in a little more than twenty years, be equal to thoſe in Great-Britain. In fifty years they will be double; and in a century from the preſent time, the Americans will amount to ſixty millions! Can any one imagine this vaſt country, with ſuch a multitude of people, will long be in the ſlaviſh ſubjection to Britain? He may as well ſuppoſe ſhe will govern the whole univerſe.

The inſults and oppreſſions the Americans have ſuffered, has been a ſchool of political wiſdom, and have taught them many important leſſons. They now ſee that by one ſtroke of policy, they can form an independent ſtate, ſecure from invaſion of enemies; this they can do immediately if they pleaſe. 'Tis only forming a ſtate general, choſen by all the provinces, and offering a free trade to all nations in Europe, and the thing is compleated. ---Let the ſons of Britain hear this with profound attention--- let them NOW hearken to reaſon, and follow the dictates of WISDOM.

I cannot forbear reflecting upon the kind and remarkable diſpenſations of Providence in favour of theſe colonies from their firſt ſettlement. The Savages were not permitted to make war againſt them, until they had made ſuch progreſs as rendered them invincible to their enemies. When France had plotted their deſtruction in 1746, and ſent a ſtrong fleet and army to effect it, Heaven ſmil'd upon New-England, ſent peſtilence, and raging ſtorms, to ſweep off thoſe who were meditating her ruin.---- Again we ſee the propitious hand of Providence, the enemies of the nation, have long been wiſhing to enſlave the Americans, but they were not ſuffered openly to attempt it, until the colonies were too firmly rooted to be ſhaken, and now, truſting in their Almighty Guardian, they can and will defy the efforts of all their foes---and may ſoon expect to ſee them overwhelmed with ſhame, if not with ruin. The infidel, and the impious, may laugh at theſe obſervations, but who ſo is WISE, and will obſerve theſe Things, they ſhall underſtand the loving kindneſs of the Lord.

AMERICA SOLON.

BOSTON, FEBRUARY 17.

We hear that the Members of Dr. Cooper's congregation have lately ſubſcribed a ſum, which is thought ſufficient for the purpoſe of erecting a large and elegant church; and that among the generous ſubſcribers for this purpoſe, the Honourable JOHN HANCOCK, Eſq; diſtinguiſhed on many occaſions by his benevolence and public ſpirit, has given one thouſand pounds lawful money.

FEBRUARY 24. We are informed, that at the requeſt of a Committee appointed by this town, an ORATION is to be publicly delivered next month by JOSEPH WARREN, Eſq; on the dangerous tendency of STANDING ARMIES to the Rights of CIVIL SOCIETY; and in commemoration of the horrid maſſacre perpetrated on the 5th of March, 1770.

On Tueſday laſt, being the day by law appointed for holding the Superior Court at Boſton, in and for the county of Suffolk, after opening the Court in the uſual form, his Majeſty's Commiſſions were publiſhed, appointing the Honourable Peter Oliver, Eſq; Chief Juſtice, and the Honourable Edmund Trowbridge, Foſter Hutchinſon, Nathaniel Ropes, and William Cuſhing, Eſqrs. Juſtices of the ſaid Court.----His Honour the Chief Juſtice gave an elegant and pertinent charge to the Grand Jury. There was a very numerous and reſpectable auditory upon this occaſion.

The paper in the Maſſachuſetts Spy, of the 14th of November laſt, ſigned MUCIUS SCÆVOLA, was laid before the late Grand Jury, and we hear a bill was prepared by the King's Attorney, agreeable to an order of the Governor and Council. But the good men of the county returned Ignoramus thereon, not being able to find upon their oaths that it was "FALSE," &c.--- Quere, Whether this is a proof that ſeven-eighths of the people of this province deteſt the writings of our "pretended Patriots," as we have lately been told in the Maſſachuſetts Gazette?

Laſt Saturday in the forenoon, the Grand Jury laid before his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Superior Court, a certain paper, the contents whereof have not yet tranſpired. This paper was ſigned by the Foreman, at the unanimous requeſt of his brethren, and ſeemed to be received with ſome reſentment by the Court; who peremptorily directed their attendance at four o'clock in the afternoon on ſaid Saturday. This extraordinary order was matter of much ſpeculation among the people, who crowded to obſerve the event. The paper is ſuppoſed to relate to Ebenezer Richardſon, who was convicted of the murder of young Seider, twenty-two months ago. This ſuppoſition is rendered the more probable, as his Honour the Chief Juſtice, after it had been peruſed by the Court, ſaid to the Jury, that they charitably believed that they were ignorant that the caſe of Ebenezer Richardſon was then before his Majeſty.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) FEBRUARY 24.

The fore part of laſt week an armed ſchooner (what ſchooner we know not) ſeized a ſmall freight-boat, with about 10 or 12 hogſheads of rum, &c. on board, which were ſent from Eaſt-Greenwich, in this colony, to be ſhipped from this place to Philadelphia, in order to purchaſe flour, bread, &c. and we are told this rum, &c. had been legally imported, and entered at our Cuſtom-houſe.-----Alſo, we are aſſured, that on Thurſday laſt, a boat going from this port to Prudence, in this colony, but a few miles from hence, was ſeized by the ſame unknown ſchooner, only for having three hogſheads of Molaſſes on board, which Molaſſes was legally imported, and the duties paid laſt week:---Theſe 3 hogſheads of Molaſſes, we are told, belonged to a poor man, who has now loſt the full value of all he was worth under heaven; ſome ſay this p-r-t-c-l ſchooner belongs to K. G----- the Th--d; but we ſhould think it a little below his Br-t-n-c Majeſty to keep men of war employed in robbing ſome of his pooreſt ſubjects, who are ſcarcely able to procure the common neceſſaries of life; when thoſe men of war might be ſo well employed, eſpecially at this time, againſt Spain, who has inſulted the Br-t-ſh flag in almoſt all parts of the globe, within theſe 18 or 20 months paſt, and very lately in the Weſt-Indies and Falkland's-Iſland.------Americans, take CARE of your PROPERTY! For, according to preſent appearances, you may ſoon expect to have your firewood SEIZED, if it be tranſported by water from one place to another without clearing and entering. The above ſchooner has a number of ſwivels and carriage guns.

Since the above account was received, we are informed, that his M-------'s ſchooner Gaſpee, has been cruiſing our rivers for near a week paſt; but for what intent we cannot learn, unleſs it be to meet, and manfully attack, thoſe enemies who have lately treated with contempt the whole Engliſh nation.

'Tis ſaid the B-----h Miniſtry think it much ſafer (though a little more diſgraceful; but that's no matter) to keep their men of war, frigates, cutters, armed ſloops and ſchooners, cruiſing on the coaſts, and plundering the navigation, &c. of their induſtrious, unarmed North-American friends, than to attack their haughty, daring and inſulting enemies, the French and Spaniards!

NEW-YORK, FEBRUARY 10.

Laſt Wedneſday Mr. Juſtice Livingſton preſented his Indentures to the Houſe of Aſſembly, for the fourth time, and in a very ſenſible Speech ſupported his Right to a Seat in the Houſe; ---ſo great a crowd of people attended, that many were unable to hear what was ſaid on that important Subject.---It is therefore expected that Mr. Livingſton, and the other Gentlemen that ſpoke on the occaſion, will favour the public with their Speeches, as not only the Rights of the Crown, but the Liberties of the People are deeply intereſted.

The Honourable Judge Livingſton, on Wedneſday laſt, offered himſelf to the Aſſembly, to be admitted as a Member for the Manor of Livingſton, when, we hear, he was excluded; the Houſe adhering to their former Reſolution, that no Judge of the Supreme Court ſhould be allowed a Seat in that Houſe.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) FEBRUARY 20.

Extract from the JOURNAL of the Honourable HOUSE of BURGESSES.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18.

MR. Treaſurer acquainted the Houſe that he had a Meſſage from the Governor to this Houſe, ſigned by his Excellency, and he preſented the ſame to the Houſe, and it was read by Mr. Speaker, and is as follows, viz.

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE thought proper to lay before you a liſt of the fees, which I found had been uſually paid to the Clerks of my predeceſſors in this government, but which has been objected to in one inſtance ſince I have taken the adminiſtration upon me. In order, therefore, to give the people over whom I have the honour to preſide, the cleareſt proof of the uprightneſs of my own intentions, and to let them ſee my readineſs to remove, as ſoon as I can diſcover it, every poſſibility of a diſpute between me and thoſe whoſe affection I would gladly conciliate, I deſire you will take the ſaid liſt of fees under your conſideration; and, as I ſuppoſe, if they appear to be juſt and reaſonable to you, upon compariſon of them with what is the practice in ſimilar caſes, in all other governments, that you will have no objections to the eſtabliſhing of them by law; ſo, on my part, if you judge otherwiſe of them, I ſhall not heſitate at conſenting to aboliſh them all, or in part, exactly as you ſhall think proper to propoſe.

DUNMORE.

The liſt mentioned in the ſaid Meſſage is as follows:

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, upon Thurſday next, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration the Governor's Meſſage, and the liſt of fees therein mentioned.

The Juſtitia, Captain Gillies is arrived in Rappahannock, from London in 40 days, with 120 convicts, among whom is JOHN EYRE, Eſq; who, though worth upwards of 30,000l. ſterling, was convicted of ſtealing eleven quires of paper.

FEBRUARY 27. The Pomona, Dunlop, belonging to Meſſrs. William Cunninghame and company, of Glaſgow, was lately overſet off Cape Clear, on the coaſt of Ireland; but the crew ſaved themſelves on the bottom of the ſhip, where they remained ſome time until taken up by a man of war, who carried them into Portſmouth. Upon the loſs of this veſſel the ſame Gentlemen freighted the ſhip Margaret, Captain Speirs, and ſent her out, to take in the loading deſigned for the Pomona; but ſhe was forced aſhore in the night of the 13th inſtant, twenty miles to the ſouthward of Cape Henry, and the hull entirely loſt; the crew, with the rigging, anchors, and cables, were ſaved.

This day the Honourable the Houſe of Burgeſſes preſented the following Addreſs to his Excellency the Governor, in conſequence of his Meſſage to them reſpecting his Clerk's Fees.

MY LORD,

WE, his Majeſty's dutiful ſubjects, humbly beg leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned thanks for your very candid and polite Meſſage. It affords us the higheſt pleaſure and ſatisfaction to find your Excellency ſo cordially diſpoſed to cultivate with the country, that agreeable harmony which will undoubtedly conciliate to you the affection of his Majeſty's loyal ſubjects of Virginia, and thereby eſtabliſh our mutual happineſs upon the moſt ſolid and permanent foundation. We bear the greateſt reſpect to your Excellency's important and exalted ſtation amongſt us, and think there is a neceſſity for ſupporting the honour and dignity of our Governor; but, my Lord, give us leave, on this occaſion, humbly to repreſent to your Excellency that we conſider the emoluments of government, as by law eſtabliſhed, adequate, and amply ſufficient, for thoſe purpoſes. The fees which appear to have been received by the Clerks of your Excellency's Predeceſſors, for iſſuing commiſſions for the appointment of public officers, and which we are now, for the firſt time, regularly informed of by your Lordſhip's Meſſage, are unknown to our Laws; and therefore we cannot ſufficiently applaud your Lordſhip's wiſdom and goodneſs in embracing, ſo early, an opportunity of expreſſing your willingneſs, if they ſhould be found diſagreeable to us, as they really are, to have them totally aboliſhed.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following

ANSWER.

Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I AM obliged to you for your polite Addreſs; and as you are of opinion that the fees received by the Clerks of my predeceſſors, for iſſuing public commiſſions, were illegal, I will not only take care that my Clerk ſhall not in future receive any, but alſo that he ſhall return thoſe which he has received ſince my arrival in this Colony.

KINGSTON (Jamaica) FEBRUARY 12.

On Tuesday last was held in this town, a Court of Vice-Admiralty, when James Adams, John Gowans, and Bartholomew Boyle, were tried for running away with the long-boat of the ship Mary, Captain Triſtram Burnett, loaded with rum and proviſions. The evidence (John Elliott, whom they had compelled to go with them) was very clear, and their defence being trifling, they were found guilty, and received ſentence of death accordingly.

Three Frenchmen were arraigned for ſtealing negroes; they are to receive their trial on the 3d of March, in Spaniſh-town, the court being adjourned to that day.

Laſt week died in St. Mary's pariſh, Henry Livingſton, Eſq; he had been many years an inhabitant of this town, but was retired from buſineſs to the enjoyment of an eaſy fortune, acquired with a moſt unblemiſhed reputation.

FEBRUARY 29. On Thurſday died John Coſsley, Eſq; formerly Colonel of Horſe for the Eaſtern diviſion, and one of the Repreſentatives in Aſſembly for the pariſh of St. David; but was long ſince deprived of his eſtate by a decree of the Court of Chancery: Thus prevented from continuing to ſhine in the higher ſcenes of life, his patience and reſignation in an humbler one, rendered him ſtill more illuſtrious; from his unexperienced youth proceeded his long ſeries of misfortunes; and whatever foibles he might have had, they were abundantly overballanced by his virtues.

THAT valuable LOT of LAND in Charles-Town, known or diſtinguiſhed in the plan or model thereof, by the No. 191, ſituated at the weſt end and on the north ſide of Tradd-ſtreet, between the houſes of Alexander Fraſer, Eſq; and the late Captain Thomas Elliott, deceaſed, containing in front on ſaid ſtreet, fifty-eight feet, eight inches, or thereabouts, with the advantage of a paſſage; and in depth one hundred and forty-three feet, or thereabouts; whereon is a BRICK HOUSE deſigned for kitchens or two tenements that were intended to be built, and will ſtill ſerve thoſe purpoſes. This Lot has a fine ſouth proſpect of Aſhley-River, and as the proprietor of the oppoſite lot may perhaps make his front on Friend-ſtreet to be uniform with the other houſes built at the ſouth end and weſt ſide of that ſtreet, with the garden running eaſt and weſt, there will be no obſtruction to the ſoutherly air from Aſhley-River, which muſt be very agreeable in the hot months, and may prevent the communication of any malignant diſtemper that may rage in the interior parts of the town, or contagion ariſing from noxious effluvia. Its vicinity alſo to ſeveral good landing places on Aſhley-River, particularly the Sugar-Houſe-Creek, where a public market will no doubt be ſoon eſtabliſhed, will greatly enhance the value of all lands in that part of the town; alſo being ſituated in an excellent neighbourhood of reputable inhabitants, renders it not only more eligible, but ſecure againſt the danger of fire; and being a vacant lot, the purchaſer will have the ſatisfaction of erecting buildings thereon according to his own taſte for pleaſure or profit; the area or ground plot admitting either of one large manſion houſe of twelve rooms, or to be divided into two tenements of ſix rooms each, with land ſufficient behind for a kitchen garden to each. And, as houſes in that airy and pleaſant part of the town are ſeldom or ever empty, it will afford a certain good income quarterly.

The purchaſer may have one, two, three, or four years credit, giving bond, with approved perſonal ſecurity, and paying the intereſt punctually every year, and if he chuſes it, one third or one fourth part of the principal will be received annually, by which inſtalments, the purchaſe money will be eaſily and inſenſibly ſunk.
